Foreword

"STAIRWAYS TO THE STARS"

From the time we were old enough to reason, we continuously set goals — stars — and made decisions — steps — which have affected the paths — stairways — that we have thus far followed. Our stars became more brilliant as each year faded swiftly into the next, and the steps on our stairways to reach our stars became more distinct. For these reasons, the Class of 1961 of Auburn High School has chosen for the theme of the Follies of 1961: "Stairways to the Stars. We hope that as you glance through this book, you will recall these steps you have taken in your stairway, and your stars will become a reality.

Foreward Look

The band members who have just finished the first complete year in their new band room are justifiably proud of it. Not only has the room given the players an incentive to work harder, but it also represents one phase of the foreward look in the Auburn School System.

Around the Halls of A. H. S.

On September 6, the halls of Auburn High School shook with the arrival of students who were anxious to begin the new school year . . . Many long, tedious hours were spent in the construction of the prize-winning Tri-Hi-Y float . . . Backing their mighty football team, the Auburn fans braved the elements . . . Auburn students got into the lilt of things as they spent many hours preparing their lessons . . . College Night gave students information about many of the area colleges . . . Campaigning for elections was a lot of fun for senior civics classes . . . Disregarding the thermometer, the students spent noon hour on the school lawn . . .

Noon lunches served at the cafeteria are eaten — leisurely? . . . At the big Garrett pep session, the student body increased their enthusiasm for an Auburn victory . . . The theme of the Christmas formal, sponsored by Tri-Hi-Y, was “An Old Fashioned Christmas” . . . Although many assembly programs were presented, Nutchuck will stand out as one of the best programs . . . The traditional senior cords of A.H.S. picture some of the most memorable moments in our high school days . . .

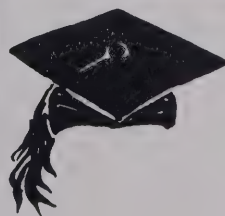

Our new student council worked very hard, trying to present rules which would make our high school better . . . The Latin students worked assiduously to make the Latin banquet truly representative of Caesar's Rome . . . "Fight!" was the plea of the Pep Club. These loyal supporters of the Devils attended both home and away games . . . The Booster Club worked diligently selling candy at the basketball games . . . The student body cheered the team on to victory — and also backed the Devils when they lost . . .

The students congregated in the halls to discuss the main events of the week . . . The Follies staff worked anxiously to make this year's book fit into the theme, "Stairway to the Stars," and to get the book out on time . . . Many hours of labor were put into each issue of the Devils' Journal by the newspaper staff . . . With the coming of spring, the track season arrived. . . . The "Red Devil" Band provided inspiring music at fairs, at concerts, and at ball games . . . Many seniors waited, trying to anticipate what the theme of the junior-senior banquet would be . . . With feelings of solicitude and anticipation, the seniors participated in graduation exercises, the finale of their high school days.

In Dedication

... to MISS CAROL M. DAWSON, who has rendered thirty-five years of service at Auburn High School. Miss Dawson's efficiency and high standards are two of the qualities which have made her such a valuable teacher. For many years, Miss Dawson taught Caesar's reign and downfall in Latin classes. Her sophomore English classes were informative hours of education. For many years, she was librarian, sponsor of the school newspaper, and literary adviser of the Follies, as well as sponsor of several classes. Traveling, reading, cooking, and participation in church activities take much of Miss Dawson's spare time. We wish to extend our most sincere thanks to her for all she has done for us.

... to MR. LLOYD W. MILLER, who for twenty-three years was our beloved and respected principal. Mr. Miller's duties as principal were many and varied. He taught group guidance, vocations, and citizenship; he was in charge of all extra-curricular activities, was athletic director, and for many years was sponsor of our annual. But Mr. Miller will be most remembered because of his willingness and desire to help students in solving any problems which troubled them. We are quite fortunate in that Mr. Miller remained as a teacher of world history. His capabilities along these lines are as outstanding as the performance of his duties as principal. For all his help and direction, we can merely say—"Thank you!"

... to MR. FRANK W. WEATHERS, who has, since 1922, educated his students in matters of history and government. Mr. Weathers's list of subjects taught included civics, economics, U.S. government, citizenship, U.S. history, English, world history, and geography. His efficient and complete method of teaching prepared his students well for future activities. The field trips to Indianapolis and the junior-senior trips to Washington and New York were all interesting, informative and enjoyable experiences. In addition to his full teaching schedule, Mr. Weathers was sponsor of several classes. In the future, Mr. Weathers will be spending a good deal of his time farming, which is a full-time job in itself. We wish to express our sincere appreciation for the many fruitful years Mr. Weathers gave to Auburn High School.

... to MR. CECIL E. YOUNG, who offered his services as both teacher and coach for thirty-six years. In the classroom, Mr. Young taught world history physical education, and driver education. He was head basketball coach for thirteen years, head track coach for twenty-eight years, and head football coach for thirty-one years. In the community he has contributed much to the Lions Club, of which he is a past president, and to the Masonic Lodge. Mr. Young's hobbies include fishing, reading, and traveling. As for his future, he intends to remain in Auburn; but much of his time will be spent at his cottage on Lake George and traveling with his wife. For his cheerful attitude and undying spirit, Mr. Young will long be remembered.

School Board Plans for Future

The Auburn Board of School Trustees has many duties. Included in these are the setting of policy for the school system, hiring teachers and administrators, preparing the budget, managing the finances, planning for the future, and making all purchases.

MR. FORD WALTER served capably as president of the Auburn Board of School Trustees this past year. Helping him to accomplish the board's many projects were MR. N. E. YODER, secretary of the board, and MR. L. L. WIBLE, treasurer of the board. The main project before the members this year was the planning of a new elementary school.

Pictured below we see our school board at work diligently planning the new elementary school.

The Administration

SUPERINTENDENT ROSS F. TIPTON

In the three years Mr. Tipton has served as superintendent he has instigated many worthwhile changes in the Auburn School System. In addition he has made a definite contribution to our community life.

MRS. CARMA JEAN ECKERT served capably as Mr. Tipton's secretary.

PRINCIPAL MEREDITH THOMPSON

Mr. Thompson has done a commendable job in this his first year as principal of Auburn High School. Included in his many creditable endeavors was the formation of the Student Council. Auburn High School is justifiably proud of its new head.

MRS. ROBERT HUGHES, Mr. Thompson's secretary, was also a new addition to the principal's office.

Senior Prophecy

Ann Anthony is a setter of paces;
She's a jockey in the turtle races.

Dave Aschleman is a charmer;
He's now America's number one farmer.

Georgia Bailey is a real roller;
She's world champion doughnut holer.

Ellis Baker, like all good boys;
Is helping Santa make his toys.

Dave Bard is out of the race;
He stole the goodies from the trophy case.

Bill Barnhart's job has no dogs;
He runs a resort for disabled frogs.

Sandy Bassett is queen of champs
At licking air mail postage stamps.

Rosie Bastian looks real keen,
As periscope on a submarine.

Wally Bates hauls in money in scoops,
After selling his paintings of chicken coops.

Janet Baysinger does her job so fine;
She takes in washings in her spare time.

Mary Ann Beck has finesse;
She's the world champ at playing chess.

As the newest star of the Chevy show.

Becky and Rosey, the Blevins twins,
Are in the clink for identical sins.

Jama Blickenstaff is mighty low;
She's a lady bum on the famous skid row.

Karen Brill found a trace of copper,
While taking the tonsils from a green grasshopper.

Jean Capen was paid a nickle,
For growing the world's smallest pickle.

Janet Carrico still gets her whirls,
Running a home for retired burlesque girls.

Carole Close made a great contribution;
She invented a bloodless transfusion.

Dave Cole has gone quite far;
He's now janitor at the Crystal Bar.

Carolyn Conner is a-knittin' socks
With yarn she made from crushed up rocks.

Mike Cornelius got a cool, cool job;
He's in the movies and is known as "The Blob."

Linda Cutter is making a million
Playing Chester with Mr. Dillon.

Diane Davis found her job safe and sane;
She's ticket puncher on a train.

Mike Depew gets all the luck,
He drives the brand new garbage truck.

Shirley Dickson got quite a rash
While trying to grow a mustache.

Helen Dilley walks down to the bog,
To teach new tricks to her green pet frog.

Joe Drerup sets the pace;
He drives in the 500 mile race.

Lee Emerson is known around town;
He can crack any safe for miles around.

Chuck Frederick has a happy future;
His goal is to be a bum and a moocher.

Jack Gaskill's got it bad;
He works a fish market selling shad.

Jim Grosh lost his claim to fame,
After his camel, Isaac, went lame.

Don Hawver, if in a good mood,
Gives away free cans of Rival dog food.

Gladwyn Hay, to his dismay,
Is teaching donkeys how to bray.

The last we heard of Judy Haynes,
She was in New York selling electronic brains.

Judy Herbolsheimer went to jail
For selling her famous home brewed ale.

Barb Hess really makes the jack,
Polishing newly laid railroad track.

Our good friend Jerry Hess
Is well known for his work in Congress.

Warren Hildebrandt, though not too tall,
Plays professional basketball.

Bob Holben is making loot,
From his invention of a nonshrinkable suit.

Marie Johnson is really "in";
She knocks on doors and sells "My Sin."

Roy Johnson got chilly toes
While selling freezers to the Eskimos.

Linda King has worked for her fame;
She runs a home for the lame.

Bob King is known afar
As America's number one basketball star.

We see Alice Kinsey's lovely face
Advertising Blatz on a billboard space.

Lyle Kneubuhler is known around
As the world's greatest clown.

Stan Knisely has won renown
As a star defenseman and a Cleveland Brown.

Judy Kruse is doing fair
As a stylist for corpse hair.

Donald Lemish is doing fine;
He runs a prominent shipping line.

Richard Lemper hasn't a care;
He's recently become a millionaire.

Mourning are we for Lanny Lung;
He used his knife and must be hung.

Jim Mason spends his time
Hunting squid in the foamy brine.

Connie McCann is recognized in a flash
By her long black curly eyelash.

John McCarthy is president of firms
That sell the best line of fishing worms.

Doris McNamara completed her mission;
She's now a first rate mortician.

Connie Metcalf went swimming and met a shark
And from this life she did embark.

Kay Miller is serving her time
To make up for her life of crime.

Senior Prophecy

Nancy Miller has some crazy kicks;
Right now she's testing pogo sticks.

Nina Miller pays her bills
By making cereal for General Mills.

Carol Moser gets her thrills
Working in a hatchery tending bluegills.

Bill Myers is no loser,
Since he was chosen number one boozier.

Mickey Ochstein really does rate;
Her show on Broadway decided her fate.

Ann Pasmann sure can show —
She's a fashion designer; didn't you know?

Sandra Rainier, after a sort,
Has taken up tiddlywinks for a sport.

James Reas is not forlorn;
He's famous for growing his cobless corn.

Thelma Rink is not so smart.
She slops paint on houses and thinks that it's art.

Steven Rose wrote a best seller
During his life as a coffee house dweller.

In clean work is John Rosenberry;
He's owner of the Tidy Dairy.

John Rosenthal can't seem to win;
He's in a bowling alley setting a pin.

Janet Rugman, if you haven't heard,
Discovered a tonic for the ailing bird.

Informed were we, and this is no myth,
Jeanette Russell's a stand-in for Kate Smith.

Happy at work is Doug Scott;
He manufactures a fur-lined pot.

This we've been told of Sharon Shaw;
She raises goldfish and eats them raw.

Harry Sherwood likes the work in his region;
He's left us to join the French Foreign Legion.

Gloria Shipe cannot gripe;
She spends her time hunting snipe.

Barbara Shook earns her keep;
She works for the army and drives a jeep.

Sandy Shook's known far and near
As a top-nitch auctioneer.

John Shoudel is doing fine
Constructing bridges o'er the Rhine.

Sally Showalter likes police protection
For she's involved in tax collection.

Steve Silberg has really gone far;
He's the head bartender at the Tip Top Bar.

Charlene Smith earns her dough
Picking ice and shoveling snow.

Richard Smith, while drilling for oil;
Struck a pool of Lestoil.

Thomas Smith, so smart was he,
Is still in college earning his Ph.D.

Don Steininger is making hay;
Testing cars for Chevrolet.

Barry Stroh is on the go;
As a salesman for "National Bo."

Karen Surfus has lots of fun;
Down in Florida soakin' up sun.

Sue Tague is keepin' thin;
Teaching lions how to grin.

Ronnie Tarlton reached his goal;
He doesn't sell doughnuts but sells the hole.

Eunice Tilghman gets the loot;
She invented the hula hoop.

Against Tom Tipton some have a grudge,
Since he became a traffic judge.

Pam Treadwell has it made;
She smuggles earrings made of jade.

Philip Trippel's at the county farm
In a padded cell so he does no harm.

Ronnie Vaughn's goin' up to the top;
Washing skyscraper windows with a mop.

Cheryll Walker has it made;
She runs a stand selling lemonade.

Terry Walker is on the go;
Displaying his car from show to show.

Kim Webb is in the trees,
Working hard at catching bees.

Linda Webb is getting stout;
Since taking a liking to sauerkraut.

Susan Weidner's doing great;
Her life is wanted in every state.

Soaring upward is Roger Weimer;
He's living high as a mountain climber.

Jim Wertman has nothing to shun;
He's accomplished the fastest mile ever run.

Steve Wildermuth, king of the rippers;
Was elected president of the honey dippers.

Dale Wildeson takes a yearly pause,
Playing the part of Santa Claus.

Linda Wilkinson captains a boat,
Which steams around in her castle's moat.

Marcia Willis has found the range;
Her eye is on the stock exchange.

Mary Wilson is older and wiser;
She runs a store that sells fertilizer.

Melinda Wineland is the best;
She plays a cowgirl in the West.

Nancy Winslow, we have seen,
Eats no fat and stays quite lean.

Arthur Woodcock has no sweat;
He's a singer in the Met.

Phil Woodcox is the man
Whose picture appears on the Chef Boy-Ar-Dee can.

Sharon Yarlot has continued her work,
Laboring as a soda jerk.

Pam Yoder runs the western branch
Of quite an extensive chicken ranch.

The juniors were at it again—making money for the Junior-Senior Banquet, which was held at the Hobby Ranch House in Fort Wayne, on May 20. The traditional movie and breakfast concluded the festivities.

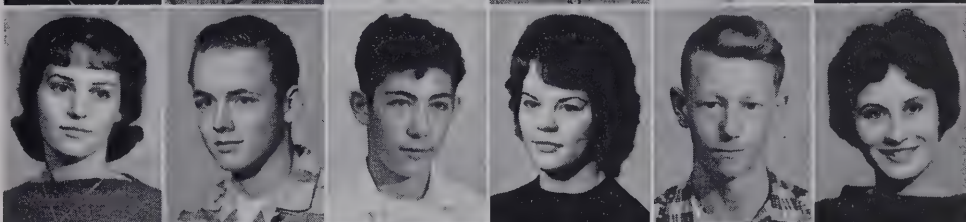

To finance this gala affair, the juniors managed a concession stand at the football field with Sudi Harpster as chairman. Ann Trippel acted as chairman when the juniors sold Christmas cards.

They will never forget all the fun they had dissecting "bugs" and "worms" in Mr. Turpin's biology classes. Also, they will long remember their first appearance in the Canteen Black-out, their hurried preparation for the festive formal, their initiations into various organizations and the stacks of books they carried home each night. Looking back over a year filled with excitement and adventure, they are anxiously awaiting their remaining three years at A.H.S. with much anticipation.

Presenting The FOLLIES OF 1961

Twelve short years ago, we, the Class of 1961, began our first day of school. As each day passed, we learned to work, study, and play together while developing our individual personalities. Swiftly, each year faded into the next, until now we stand at another threshold — graduation. Soon many members of our class will be entering college, others will be getting jobs, and still others will be engaged in the service of our country. We will no longer be together as a class but will be many individuals in every walk of life; however, we have published the Follies so that you may leaf through it in future years and recall the many happy memories of the years we spent together.

Soon after the beginning of our senior year, our class voted unanimously to sponsor an annual. The remaining staff positions were elected, and then the work began. Jim and Kurt did an excellent job of managing our finances. Whether pasting pictures or reading proof, Kay and Ann were always ready to help. Thelma captured our experiences with her pen, while Steve and Don caught our actions in photographs. Pam and Judi worked endlessly and successfully selling advertising space in our yearbook. Each class's activities were investigated by Ann and Sandy, while Barb and Connie interviewed club presidents. Anna and Barb noted our important school-year events in the school life section. Nearly five hundred copies of our book were sold in the fine campaign of Doug and his salesmen. Becky and Bob accurately reported all sports events. The amusing touches of humor were added by Gladwyn and Steve. While John gave us notes of the band and chorus, the new speech club gained full coverage by Tom. Also doing an excellent job were Kathy and Dave, who wrote the vocational activities. The entire staff deserves our heartiest thanks for a task well done.

Although the staff worked hard to meet their deadlines, our annual would have never been possible without the help of many other individuals and companies. We want to express our deepest thanks to Mr. Robert R. Love for the countless hours he spent helping us assemble our annual as well as checking and correcting our write-ups. We also wish to thank Mr. Merideth Thompson who cooperated with us to the fullest extent. Thanks go to Mr. Kelso Davis of the Davis Studio for the excellent service he gave us in developing and printing our pictures. Mr. Thomas Broom of Fort Wayne Engraving Company collected and beautifully engraved our pictures and art work. Mr. Jack Bundy of the S. K. Smith Cover Company helped us choose a cover which would portray our theme. The Auburn Printing Company with Mr. Ernest Smith supervising transformed our articles into print. The Heckman Bindery completed the final phase of binding the books. Our most sincere thanks go to the business firms, merchants, and other individuals who purchased advertising space in our book.

We are pleased to present to you the Follies of 1961. If in the future, as you are continuing up your stairway to the stars, you pause to take this book from the shelf, glance through it, and recall those happy high school days; then we, the Class of 1961, have accomplished our purpose.

Hi-Y Supports Service Projects

The Auburn Hi-Y is affiliated with the many YMCA's of the state of Indiana.

The young men who were chosen to fill the various offices of the club during the 1960-61 school year were as follows: president, James Grosh; vice-president, Philip Trippel; secretary, Philip Woodcox; treasurer, Joseph Drerup; chaplain, Douglas Scott; and sergeant-at-arms, Ronald Vaughn. The sponsor and adviser for the group were Mr. Gilbert Turpin and Mr. Harold Snyder, respectively, who did an excellent job of leading the group.

Joseph Drerup was chosen to attend officers' training camp at Delphi, Indiana.

The Hi-Y continued its monthly church attendance campaign. Two other projects which the Hi-Y took on were the sponsoring of record hops and the collection of money for the March of Dimes.

There were several interesting speakers throughout the year.

The Hi-Y met every second and fourth Tuesday of the month. Officers for the 1961-62 school year were chosen at the last meeting of the year.

Row 1: R. Palmer, G. Hay, Mr. Snyder, J. Drerup, P. Woodcox, P. Trippel, J. Grosh, R. Vaughn, R. Martin, D. Steininger.

Row 2: S. Rose, D. Wiley, A. Staggs, R. Detrick, M. Mitchell, D. Cochran, S. Allen, C. Hoover, D. Long, M. Wagner, M. Rieke.

Row 3: D. Grogg, T. Quance, J. Bruce, M. Cornelius, J. Boren, D. Lemish, S. Wildermuth, D. Scott, J. Barkey, J. Roop, M. Reynolds.

Row 4: L. Emerson, M. Holdeman, J. Lange, W. Sunday, G. Dunn, J. McCarthy, C. Frederick, H. Sherwood, W. Myers, W. Segraves.

Young Men of the Y.M.C.A.

Plebes is one of the many clubs associated with the Y.M.C.A. In 1956-57 Plebes was organized for the freshman boys of Auburn High School and in 1958 the sophomore boys were permitted to join.

The officers who presided over the meetings during the 1960-61 school year were as follows: Jack Shafer, president; Tom Goodwin, vice-president; Kim Gaskill, secretary; David Lumm, treasurer; Douglas Cochard, sergeant-at-arms; and Gary Mavis, chaplain. Mr. Max Thrasher was the club adviser, and Mr. Harold Snyder was the club sponsor.

Jack Shafer and Tom Goodwin were elected delegates to the "Y" camp at Delphi, Indiana. When Jack Shafer was unable to attend, alternate Kim Gaskill attended. There they were given instructions which in later years will help them to plan their own club meetings.

For the first time this year a representative was chosen to represent the club in the new Student Council. Kim Gaskill was the Plebes representative.

In the summer an outing was held at Pokagon State Park for all the "Y" clubs. Many attended and all had fun.

At the last meeting of the year officers for the 1961-62 school year were elected.

Row 1: Mr. Thrasher, Mr. Snyder, G. Mavis, D. Lumm, J. Shafer, T. Goodwin, K. Gaskill, D. Cochard, P. West, G. Cochard.

Service is the Watchword

The Tri-Hi-Y is a nation-wide fellowship of high school youth working for a Christian democracy. It is a service club for the school and community. Tri-Hi-Y is a unit of the Young Men's Christian Association which includes the junior and senior girls.

The club was under the leadership of President Barbara Hess and her subordinate officers: vice-president, Nancy Winslow; secretary, Melinda Wineland; treasurer, Judith Herbolzheimer; chaplain, Sandra Bassett; and sergeant-at-arms, Connie Metcalf. Miss Mary C. Wood was sponsor, and Mrs. George Baxter served as club adviser.

Several district meetings were held for officers and adviser training. In addition a State Officers Training Camp held in July at Camp Tecumseh near Delphi, Indiana, was attended by Barbara Hess and Nancy Winslow.

Tri-Hi-Y entered a decorated car in the parade at the annual DeKalb County Free Fall Fair. The car won first prize of fifty dollars.

At Christmas time Tri-Hi-Y sponsored a successful formal dance.

The Active Teens

"To create, maintain, and extend" are the words of the pledge repeated before each meeting by the ninety-eight members of Teen-Y.

The officers this year were: Patricia Proksa, president; Karen McComas, vice-president; Jan Heitz, secretary; Janet Metcalf, treasurer; Sue Smith, chaplain; and Ruth Klock, sergeant-at-arms. The advisers were Mrs. George Baxter and Mrs. Harold Mauk.

To receive training as new officers, Patricia Proksa and Karen McComas attended Camp Tecumseh the preceeding summer.

The Teen-Y group participated in the DeKalb County Free Fall Fair of 1960 and were also sponsors of the "Sadie Hawkins Dance." Profits from the activities were used for Shoe and Boot Fund for needy Auburn youth, World Service, Wee Haven, March of Dimes, Red Cross, and hospital fund.

Through their various activities Teen-Y enacted a community program to promote better citizenship and help their neighbors.

"Red Devil" Band Makes Colorful Showing

The Auburn High School Band completed another successful year under the excellent leadership of Mr. Richard Norris. The Band Council completed its second year as the governing body. The band entertained at the home football games by presenting colorful half-time shows. At marching contest this year the band received an excellent rating. The band won second place among the Class A bands at the DeKalb County Free Fall Fair. In September occurred the most memorable event of the year as the band members participated in Purdue's band day. The twirlers attended numerous twirling contests during the year and received many medals for their efforts. Auburn was well represented at solo and ensemble contest. District winners participated in the state contest and achieved these ratings: Linda Cutter, Diane Davis, Kathleen Reno, and Gloria Bassett, superior; Judith Kruse, Kristen Weiler, and Cathie Osmon, excellent; Ronald and Randall Byall, good. The band then made preparation for district contest which was held in Auburn last March.

The following were the officers elected by the band: John Shoudel, president; Linda Cutter, vice-president; Ann Pasmann, sec.; Judith Kruse, treas.

Chorus Enjoys Entertaining

The Auburn High School Chorus under the capable direction of Mrs. Wayne Voss enjoyed a very rewarding and successful year.

The entire chorus, or ensemble, presented an assembly program at Christmas for the entire student body. In April the ensemble gave its Spring Concert with a member of the speech class acting as emcee. The entire group of singers also sang for the Baccalaureate services. The Boys' Chorus was quite active this year at various engagements including a Christmas program for the Elks Club. Other groups of the chorus included the Starliners, a group of male and female singers; a boys' quartet; and a girls' quartet. These vocal groups were busy providing musical entertainment on various occasions during the year.

The officers elected by the chorus were: Kathleen Beuret, president; Kathryn Krumma, vice-president; Elizabeth Clemens, secretary; Gloria Crain, treasurer; Sharenne Stouder, librarian; Marie Johnson, podium manager; and Pamela Treadwell, reporter.

G.A.A. Offers Variety of Sports

The girls belonging to Girls' Athletic Association participated in many sports, such as volleyball, basketball, bowling, swimming, tumbling, archery, and tennis. G.A.A. was held every Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday evening from 7:30 until 9:00 p.m.

G.A.A. was established for the purpose of giving each girl a chance to participate in many sports. It teaches her sportsmanship and helps her to develop her physical abilities.

To stay a member of G.A.A., a girl must earn fifty points. Six practices in any sport give a girl ten points. Numerals are awarded when she has earned 150 points, a letter when she has earned 250 points; and if she earns 350 points, she gets the highest possible award, a state G.A.A. plaque.

This year four girls were awarded letter jackets. Karen Brill, Diane Davis, Marie Johnson, and Alice Kinsey earned over three hundred points during their membership in the club which entitled them to this honor.

The officers for the 1960-61 year were Alice Kinsey, president; Rebecca Blevins, vice-president; Karen Brill, secretary; and Diane Davis, treasurer. Much of the success for the club goes to the faculty sponsor, Miss Mary Lou Kostielney.

Students Read Happenings of A.H.S.

Published by-weekly except during the months of June, July, and August, the Devils' Journal contains stories about the students and faculty of Auburn High School. This year the Devils' Journal was exchanged with thirty-two other schools in the area. The major staff for 1960-61 included Ann Pasmann, serving as editor-in-chief; Marcy Tucker, associate editor; Kay Miller, business manager; Connie McCann, exchange secretary; Michael Wagner, feature editor; Mark Shaw, sports editor; Judith Haynes, deviltry editor; Linda Cutter, head typist; Dixielee Rolf, head printer; Karen McComas, art editor; Jean Capen, head assembler; and Thomas Tipton, publicity director. For the third consecutive year the Devils' Journal has been sponsored by Mr. Robert Love. His advice was gratefully accepted by the staff throughout the entire year.

This year a much-needed publications room was built in the rear of room 21. The Devils Journal was printed here each time.

More copies of the Devils' Journal were sold this year than ever before in the history of Auburn High School.

Experience Is the Guideword

The Future Teachers of America Club of Auburn High School has a motto of "Learn Through Doing" and believes in letting its members gain experience "on the job." One period a week during the second semester thirty-five out of the thirty-eight members of the club taught in various classes from the first through the eighth grades. Invaluable information and fun were gained through the worthwhile experience of student teaching.

The club consists of juniors and seniors who believe that in the future they might like to become teachers.

Ablly leading the club this year was President Kay Miller. Alice Kinsey served as vice-president, while Barbara Shook filled the post of secretary. This year's treasurer was Sandra Bassett, the parliamentarian was Judith Kruse, and Mary Wilson was historian. Mrs. Wayne Voss was sponsor of the club. At a final meeting held in May the new officers were installed.

F. H. A. Supports Hospital Fund

Since the motto of the Future Homemakers of America is "Toward New Horizons," the Auburn chapter of F.H.A. gave fifty dollars to the DeKalb County Hospital fund in order to emphasize a new horizon. This year the F.H.A. sold candy, co-sponsored the annual F.H.A.-F.F.A. Turkey Trot, and enjoyed the formal banquet and installation of new officers in May.

This year F.H.A. was lead by the following officers: Kathleen Beuret, president; Kathryn Krumma, vice-president; Sara Showalter, secretary; Jeannette Alwood, treasurer; Nancy Thomas, parliamentarian; Linda Webb, historian; Elizabeth Clemens, song leader; Linda Wilkinson, reporter; and Jeanette Russell, projects chairman. Mrs. Larry Stomm served as chapter adviser, with Mrs. J. Wayne Beuret and Mrs. Guy Alwood as chapter mothers.

F.F.A. Boys Learn Farm Recordkeeping

The Future Farmers of America is a national organization whose purpose is to teach young boys how to keep good farm records.

The officers for 1960-1961 were David Aschleman, president; Duane Schlatter, vice-president; Don Hawver, treasurer; Dennis Heffley, secretary; Lanny Lung, reporter; and Roger Schlatter, sentinel. Mr. Gilbert Turpin was chapter adviser.

In summer of 1960 five of the top members of the chapter went on a camping trip in Michigan. The trip lasted one week and was an enjoyable experience. Members going on this trip were Don Hawver, Lanny Lung, David Aschleman, Ralph Smith, and Dale Wildeson. Two adults, Mr. Gilbert Turpin and Mr. Raymond Aschleman, accompanied the boys.

The chapter had twenty-eight members this year. There were eight new Green Hands, eighteen Chapter Farmers, and two Hoosier Farmers. The Hoosier Farmer degree is the highest degree in the state.

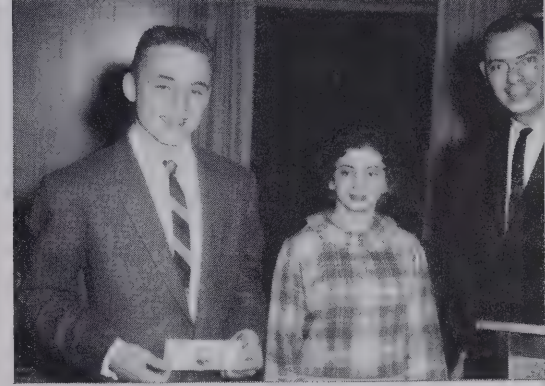

Speech Club Encourages Forensics

This fall a speech and dramatics club was formed under the sponsorship of Mr. Earl Notestine, the speech teacher. At the first meeting officers were elected as follows: president, Thomas Tipton; vice-president, Thomas Quance; secretary, Sandra Shook; treasurer, Melinda Wineland; and Student Council representative, Judith Kruse.

Forensic activities included a speech conference at Ball State Teachers College at Muncie and the Rotary Speech Contest with Linda Wilkinson and Thomas Quance winning the speech contest in the girls' and boys' divisions, respectively.

The dramatics season was concluded by a play, "The Life of the Party," presented April 28. The play was directed by Mr. Notestine and produced by the Speech Club.

Student Council is Organized

The Student Council of Auburn High School was created in 1960 in order to help supervise and direct school activities, regulate school elections, improve student-teacher relationships, assist in management of the school, improve school morale, and promote the general welfare of the school.

The Student Council for 1960-61 was composed of one representative from each school and Y.M.C.A. organization and two representatives from each class. The faculty sponsors were Mr. Meredith Thompson, A.H.S. principal, and Mr. Earl Notestine, guidance director. The officers were as follows: president, Steven Wildermuth; vice-president, John Shoudel; and secretary, Barbara Hess.

The Council discussed many innovations this year. Among them were one-way stairways, which helped to eliminate confusion in the halls, and a method of election of the varsity cheerleaders.

A regular business meeting of the council was held every Wednesday during the activity period. The constitution and by-laws which were written by the Student Council became effective upon ratification by three-fourths vote of both the faculty and the student body.

The president for the 1961-62 school year was elected in the spring before school was dismissed.

The Council has provided a means by which the students may have a voice in the operation of the school and its various functions. They are to be commended for the fine job they have done this year.

Boosters Provide Programs

The Booster Club is formed by students of Auburn High School who wish to sell candy, ice cream, and potato chips to the spectators at the basketball games. The proceeds are used to pay for assembly programs that are presented to the students and faculty of Auburn High School. Among these very interesting programs this year were Mr. Simon Oliver Nutchuk, musician and lecturer on Alaska; Mr. Don Lonie, an inspirational speaker; Mr. Edward E. Thompson, a glass blower; "Professor" Merrill Nelson and his musical hall-tree; the excellent choir from Albion; and the orchestra from Coldwater, Michigan.

This year twenty students participated in the Booster Club. Nancy Thomas and Jeannette Alwood were co-managers of the club. Mr. Meredith Thompson, principal, was the sponsor of the Booster Club. This club usually held its meetings in room thirteen on Thursday mornings preceding the week-end games. During the meetings the members of the club chose partners and sections of the gymnasium they wished to work.

Each game proved a new and interesting experience, as they went among spectators, they met many persons from other schools and towns.

We are all grateful to the Booster Club for the time and effort which they put in so that we can enjoy the many interesting assembly programs.

Ready to Serve

Student librarians handled the circulation of the school library books and magazines. They signed out books, checked them in, and shelved them in the proper places.

The main purpose of our library is to serve as a reference center for all subjects taught in Auburn High School. This center includes numerous reference books, fiction, and current magazines.

Margaret Jennings was in charge of recording in-coming magazines, and Kay Miller ascertained each day's circulation. Doris McNamara took care of issuing and returning past issues of magazines in our magazine stacks.

Those participating in this year's program were: first period — Jayne Hamilton and Pat Shoudel, assistant; second period—Doris McNamara and Barbara Shook, assistant; third period — Margaret Jennings and Barbara Shook, assistant; fourth period—Lana Carper; fifth period—Ann Pasmann and Virginia Coffin, assistant; and sixth period—Kay Miller and Margaret Jennings, assistant. School librarian, Mrs. Kenneth Reed, was the sponsor of the student librarians.

A.H.S. Charters a Science Club

The Auburn Chapter of the Science Clubs of America was organized this year for the purpose of furthering interest in science and mathematics. The charter officers were Richard Wheeler, president; Kurt Hahn, vice-president; Kathleen Beuret, secretary; and Arthur Garceau, treasurer. Mr. Gilbert Turpin and Mr. Thomas Furber were the advisers for the club.

Meetings of the Science Club were held on Wednesday afternoons after school, either in the biology room or in the chemistry laboratory. Several members of the Science Club exhibited projects at the Science Fair in Angola.

The Science and Math Weekly was received by all of the members in order to learn the newest developments in science and mathematics.

Lettermen's Club Forms Cheering Block

The Lettermen's Club is composed of those who won letters in the previous year's track season or in this year's activities, such as football, basketball, track, golf, yell leading; and student managers.

Letters are awarded by the number of points in track and basketball. Special awards, such as silver track shoes and silver footballs and also blankets, are given to the senior lettermen.

Lettermen for the 1960-61 season are listed on the following pages: football, page 71; basketball, page 75; track, page 78; baseball, page 79; and golf, page 80.

The Lettermen's Club formed a cheering block for this year's sectional tourney and hopes to continue next year.

The club was capably led by the following officers: Robert King, president; Thomas Smith, vice-president; Donald Steininger, secretary; and Jack Gaskill, treasurer.

Pep Club Backs Mighty Devils

*Three plus two, that's our crew;
Oh what those five boys can do;
Has everybody seen our team?*

Eighty-seven strong, dressed in red and black jersey pullovers, black skirts, and white gloves, these girls backed "Our Devils" in every game of the season. A special Pep Club bus was chartered for every away game of the season so that the Pep Club members and other students of Auburn High School could get to away games.

Officers of the Pep Club consisted of Marcy Tucker, president; Mona Ouer, vice-president; and Connie Tuttle, secretary-treasurer. These girls taught the Pep Club songs and movements which were used as half-time shows.

Cheerleaders Dale Grogg, Suzanne Martin, Gloria Crain, and Connie McCann headed the Pep Club by teaching them tricky yells and maneuvers.

Awards were given this year as a reward for service to the basketball team and to Auburn High School.

The Auburn Pep Club under the sponsorship of Miss Mary Lou Kostielney certainly was a big success during the basketball season this year.

The Auburn Athletic Association was organized to create school spirit. To become a member of A.A.A. one would be in one of the following groups: band members, booster club members, season ticket holders, student helpers at the games, cheer leaders, or members of any of the athletic teams.

Frequently, pep sessions were held before important games. Sometimes a special speaker, such as Coach Showalter or Coach Johnson, would give a speech to create more enthusiasm among the students. The president, of course, was expected to have a joke or two for each occasion.

The girls and boys who wanted to try out for yell leaders were given a chance to practice and then elections were held. The student body elected Connie McCann, Gloria Crain, Suzanne Martin, and Dale Grogg as varsity yell leaders; and Kathryn Miller and Janet Metcalf as B team yell leaders. The yell leaders sponsored a record hop and bought new outfits for both the varsity and B team yell leaders.

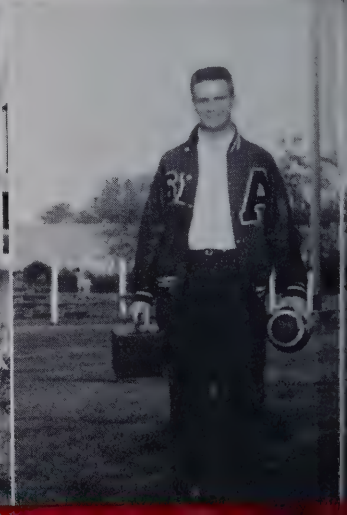

The officers of A.A.A. for the 1960-61 year were Steven Wildermuth, president; Thomas Smith, secretary; Miss Mary C. Wood, treasurer; and Mr. Meredith Thompson, athletic director.

Grids Have Good Season

On Monday morning, August 15, seventy-one boys confronted Coach Charles "Chuck" Johnson to start their many hours of hard work in football.

On September 12, for the first time in Auburn history, a Jamboree, consisting of teams from Angola, Garrett, Kendallville, and Auburn, was held at Earl Carr Memorial Field. Auburn lost to Angola, 6 to 0, while Garrett and Kendallville battled to a 7 to 7 tie.

In the first regular season game, Decatur handed the Red Devils a 27 to 7 setback at the local field. Auburn's lone touchdown came on a sneak play by Warren Sunday. Thomas Smith kicked the extra point.

The Red Devils, down at the half, 6 to 0, came back in the second half to stage a brilliant team rally and win their first North Eastern Indiana Conference game of the year from Bluffton, 13 to 6. Thomas Quance and Robert King scored the Auburn touchdowns while Tom Smith kicked the extra points.

On September 23, the Red Devils met unexpected resistance from a spirited Angola line and had to settle for a 7 to 7 tie. Bob King scored the Satan's touchdown with Tom Smith kicking the extra point.

For the first time in Auburn history, the Red Devils defeated a young but scrappy Nappanee team by a score of 13 to 7. Bob King scored both Auburn touchdowns while Tom Smith kicked the extra point.

Against Kendallville, the Red Devils had a cold first half, but came back onto the gridiron in the second half and looked more like a football team. The Satan's rally fell short as they were defeated by the Kendallville Comets, 34 to 20. The highlight of the evening was a 95-yard touchdown jaunt by Bob King. Tom Smith and Tom Quance also scored touchdowns for the Red Devils.

Fast gaining a reputation for their second half comebacks, the Red Devils pulled another game out of the fire at the expense of Hartford City, 19-14. Bob King scored two touchdowns while Tom Quance scored the other with Tom Smith again kicking the extra points.

Next the Red Devils had to overcome a 6 to 0 deficit and throw up a last minute goal-line stand to squeeze out a 14 to 12 victory over the North Manchester Squires. Bob King scored the Auburn touchdowns while Tom Smith kicked the extra points.

The Warsaw Tigers put a damper on a jovial homecoming crowd at Earl Carr Memorial Field when they handed the Satans a thumping 27 to 6 loss. Douglas Cochard threw a pass to end John Shoudel for the only Auburn score of the game.

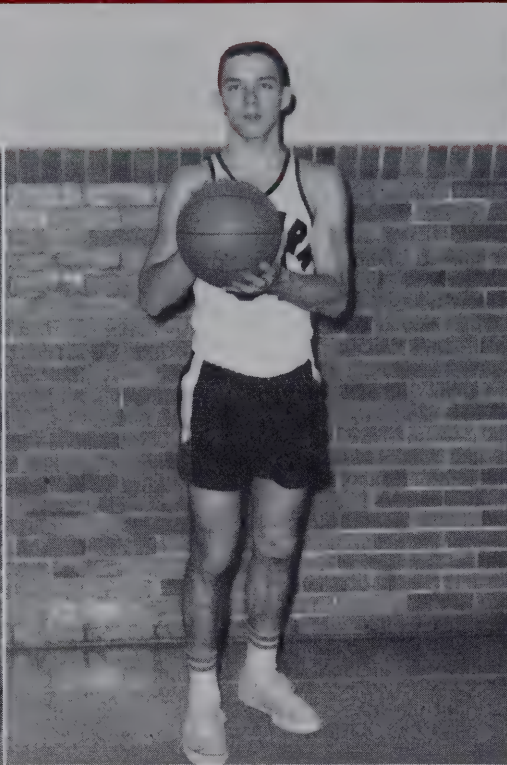

The Garrett Railroaders turned two Auburn fumbles into touchdowns and romped off with a 13 to 0 victory over the Red Devils in the traditional windup of the football season for both teams.

Fans Thrilled by Cagers' Improvement

On November 12 the Auburn Red Devils opened their 1960-61 campaign with a victory over the Salem Center Cardinals 66-54 under their new coach, Dalen Showalter. Robert King and Wayne Segraves paced the Red Devils with thirteen points each.

The Penn Tigers, who were held in check the first half, exploded with a vengeance in the third quarter Friday evening, November 18, to hand Auburn a 76-49 loss. Robert Martin was high for the Satans with fifteen points.

The Auburn Red Devils, down four points with less than four minutes to go, rallied and walked off with a 63-57 victory over the Butler Windmills on the Butler court Saturday evening, November 26. Robert Martin and Jon Bruce paced the scoring with twenty-eight and fourteen points, respectively.

The Portland Panthers exploded for a thirty-one point fourth quarter rally and broke wide open a thrilling game between the Red Devils and the Panthers. The final score was 84-68. Robert Martin, Jon Bruce, and Steven Wildermuth led Auburn in the scoring with seventeen, fifteen, and thirteen points, respectively.

The Auburn Red Devils survived a blistering fourth quarter rally by a desparate Adams Central Greyhound quintet and walked off with a 72-64 victory at Alumni Gymnasium Saturday evening, December 10. Robert Martin and Robert King led the scoring with twenty-five and twenty-one points, respectively.

The Auburn Red Devils lost an N.E.I.A.C. engagement to the Garrett Railroaders by a 65-56 score at Alumni Gymnasium on December 16. Robert Martin led Auburn with twenty-six points.

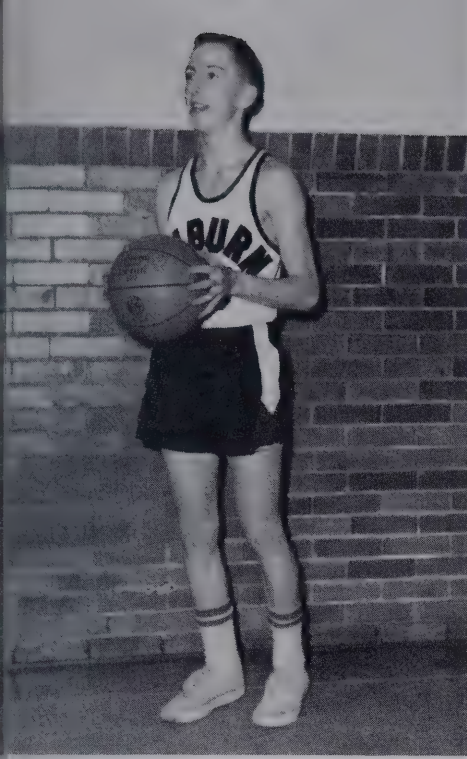

The Kendallville Comets handed Auburn one of the worst defeats of the year. The final score was 79-52. Jack Shafer led the Auburn scoring with thirteen markers.

Led by forward, Robert Martin, who scored twenty-seven points, the Devils broke a two-game losing streak Friday evening, December 23, when they whipped the Churubusco Eagles, 64-58.

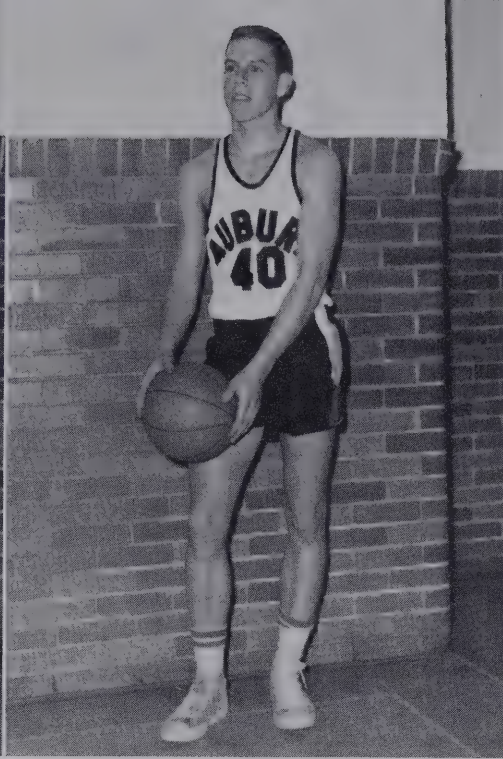

In the Kendallville Holiday Tourney, Auburn played Concordia in the second game and almost pulled an upset. The Cadets, however, defeated the Satans, 72-67. Steven Wildermuth led the scoring with twenty-two points.

In the consolation game Auburn was defeated by the Kendallville Comets but not as badly as the defeat handed the Satans by Concordia. The final score was 73-66.

Robert Martin led Auburn in the scoring column by canning twenty-four points as the Auburn Red Devils came up with one of their best games of the season and beat the Angola Hornets by a 67-56 score on the Hornets' own floor. The Auburn scoring was evenly balanced as Robert Martin and Jack Shafer had eighteen points each while Steven Wildermuth had seventeen.

The Auburn Red Devils failed to snap the winning streak of the Berne Bears Saturday evening, January 7, and the Satans became the eleventh straight victim of the talented Bears by a score of 61 to 45. Robert Martin was high for the Red Devils with twenty-one points.

The Auburn Red Devils dropped a close 60-59 decision to an aggressive Decatur Yellow Jacket five on Friday evening, January 13, at the local gymnasium. Jack Shafer led all scorers with sixteen points, but Robert King was close behind with fifteen points.

At Mishawaka the Satans put up a disappointing performance; as a result, they were defeated by the Cavemen, 69-53. Robert Martin and Jack Shafer tied for scoring honors with fifteen points apiece while Robert King tallied ten points.

The Fort Wayne Central Tigers romped over the Devils about as expected as they posted a 67-43 win over the Red Devils at the Central gym in downtown Fort Wayne. Jack Shafer and Robert Martin led Auburn in the scoring column with fourteen and thirteen points, respectively.

The local aggregation lost a heartbreaker at Hartford City on January 27, the Airedales nosing the Satans in an overtime thriller by an 83-79 score. Robert Martin tallied twenty points while Jon Bruce hit for seventeen points.

The Auburn Red Devils withered under an avalanche of second half field goals and lost a 92-65 N.E.I.A.C. decision to the Bluffton Tigers at Bluffton, February 3. Jon Bruce, Robert Martin, and Steven Wildermuth led the scoring with nineteen, fifteen, and thirteen points respectively.

The Ossian Bears formed the opposition for the Satans Saturday night, February 4, and handed the Satans their seventh straight loss. The final score was 71 to 68. Robert Martin took scoring honors for the evening by scoring twenty-three points.

The Auburn Red Devils reversed the script at Alumni Gymnasium Friday evening, February 10, and with a strong finish whipped the Huntington Vikings by a score of 60 to 54. Robert Martin was high scorer for Auburn with nineteen points.

The steadily improving Satans came up with a twenty-eight point final quarter at Alumni Gymnasium February 17 to whip soundly the Warsaw Tigers by a score of 67-47 to rack up their seventh win of the season. Jack Shafer and Wayne Segraves led Auburn with nineteen and sixteen points, respectively.

The Auburn Red Devils successfully launched their bid to gain a sectional crown, which has escaped Auburn teams for the past five years, and nosed out a scrappy Orland Tiger crew with a thrilling 60-54 win at the Churubusco gymnasium Wednesday evening. Robert Martin led the Auburn scoring as he tallied eighteen points, while Robert King and Jon Bruce each had ten.

The Auburn Red Devils came to the end of the sectional tourney trail Thursday evening when the Fremont Eagles dumped them from the running by a score of 76-64. Jack Shafer and Steven Wildermuth scored fifteen and thirteen points, respectively.

Thomas Smith, Steven Wildermuth, and Robert King earned senior awards.

The following boys received certificates: Robert King, Thomas Smith, Steven Wildermuth, David Long, Wayne Segraves, Jon Bruce, Robert Martin, Paul Carper, Thomas Quance, David Lumm, Douglas Cochard, and Jack Shafer. Donald Lemish received a manager's award.

The Red Devils, with only a few weeks of training, opened the 1960 track season under Coach John R. "Bob" Walter with a victory at the expense of the Angola Hornets. The final score was $73\frac{2}{3}$ to $35\frac{1}{3}$.

On April 12, the Kendallville Comets, led by big Don Cochard, defeated the Satans $69\frac{1}{3}$ to $39\frac{2}{3}$ at Earl Carr Memorial Field. On April 14 the Red Devils lost a close meet to the experienced Concordia Cadets of Fort Wayne by a score of 61 to 48.

On April 16 the Red Devils attended the annual Goshen Relays. The outcome was, however, not too good for the Satans, as they placed thirteenth with twelve points.

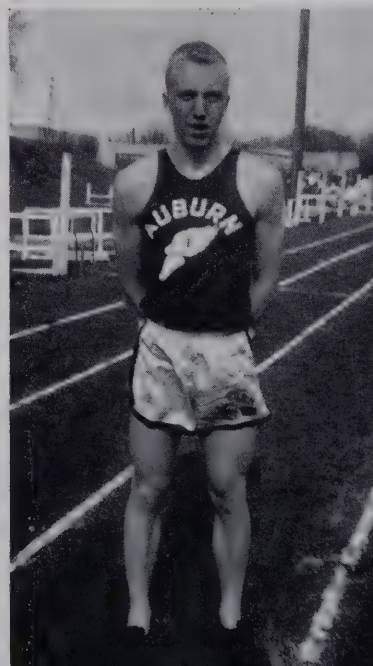

The talented Railroaders, led by Carsen Culler, handed the Red Devils their worst defeat of the year, the final score being 81 to 28.

The Red Devils sensed a victory when Hometown came to visit the Auburn thinly clad. The Satans came out on top with a score of 63 to 46.

Auburn entered the Kokomo Relays on April 23 but did not fare too well with the tough opponents. The Satans scored three points and finished eighth.

After one postponement the Red Devils soundly handed the Butler Windmills a defeat. The final score read 84 to 25.

The annual North Eastern Indiana Conference track meet was held on April 27 at Columbia City. Auburn finished eighth with a total of eight points.

Central Catholic won the next meet with a total of 75½ points to 54½ for the Devils.

The last meet of the season found the Red Devils participating at the Sectional meet held at Northrop Field in Fort Wayne. Auburn gathered a total of 1½ points and finished ahead of Garrett and Decatur.

Roger Souder and Donald Wiley were the only two Auburnites to gain places in the Regional meet. Roger ran in the low hurdles race while Don participated in the pole vault. Both boys failed to qualify for the state meet.

Imps Prove Good Prospects for Varsity

The Imps played a tough schedule this season and were beaten by height in many of the games.

Assistant Coach Robert Voelkel's team this year was made up of the following boys: Douglas Cochard, David Lumm, Jerry McNutt, Gary Mavis, Daniel Anthony, Gary Cochard, Michael Myers, James Moore, Duane Schlatter, Thomas Goodwin, and Larry Sanxter.

Jack Shafer was advanced to varsity after his first four games. Later in the season Doug Cochard and Dave Lumm were given a chance to play in a few of the varsity games. These three also played in the sectional tournament.

High point man this season was Doug Cochard with 227 points. Doug was also captain of the B team.

The Imps finished the season by winning the last five games. Altogether the B team won nine out of eighteen games.

The B team scores were:

FACULTY AND SENIORS

CLASH

On the eve of April 31, 1961, Saint Faculty Day, one of the most memorable events in the history of A.H.S. took place in the local arena, better known to most Auburnites as the gym. The occasion, which no one who attended will forget, was the tri-annual basketball game between the "Ferocious" Faculty and the "Shiftless" Seniors.

When the doors opened, a multitude of anxious spectators crowded their way into respective seats in the beautiful and monstrous auditorium. The seating was handled superbly by "Adorable" Love. Assisting the great efficiency of "Adorable" Love were three of his very incompetent associates. Stationed at the southwest exit, the one nearest the teacher's lounge, was "Honorable" Howard anticipating a Cancer Stick break. Close by at the south east corner stood "Tipsy" Turpin, suffering from a fractured nose. Across the floor from "Tipsy" Turpin, was "Ready" Reed manhandling a mop made up of a misfortunate messy moisture.

Confined to the scorer's bench were "Wild" Wood and "Physicist" Furber. "Physicist" Furber was placed in charge of running the clock and blowing his buzzer. Miss "Wild" Wood, with a background of precision workmanship, was named the official scorer for the evening. "Mugsy" Miller seated himself directly behind the scorer's bench to see that no unethical practices would be used. Seated with "Mugsy" Miller was "Tricky" Teter. "Tricky" Teter's sole job was counting for the knock downs.

The convicts for the contest were chosen for their unusual talents in the are of "reffing." Unanimously elected were "Terrible" Trippel and the most likeable of the two, "Horrible" Hildebrandt.

The convicts blew their whistles signaling the players to break away from their respective huddles. As the Fighting Faculty Five departed from their coach, "High Pockets" Showalter, the loyal spectators viewed the "OLD PRO'S" for the first time in three seasons. A run-down of the players was announced over the loud speaker system. First of all was the introduction of the "Superior" Seniors. The announcement was as follows: one guard, "Maybe" Mason; at the other guard, "Master" Bates; at the forward positions, "Reliable" Reas and "Dubious" Dork; at the center spot, "Magnificent" Moose. After ear-ringing shouts from the senior cheering square, "Physicist" Furber commenced to introduce the Faculty Five. At the guard positions were "Workin'" Williams and "Noticeable" Notestine; at the forward spots were "Threatening" Thrasher and "Vicious" Voelkel; retaining the center position was "Jump-in" Johnson.

After multiple preliminaries the game fully got under way. Spice was added to the game by the cheerleaders of both parties. For the Faculty it was the moral-sparked leadership of Stomm, Finchum, Voss, Beyer, and Kostielney. Cheerleaders for the Seniors were Haynes, Hess, Shook, and Shoudel. The nine representatives led such yells as, "I Said No," "Cha, Cha, Cha Cha," and "Rots of Ruck!" The obnoxious reffing of Hildebrandt and Trippel forced many of the fans to blow their fuse. Consequently, within five minutes after the encounter had begun, the game was called on account of darkness.

After the brief game, which was enjoyed by no one, the elders retired and the majority of the student body journeyed to "Jessie's Joint" for "Gossip and Goodies."

Watch-It

An elderly headwaiter at a Southern university dining room was very religious. Whenever he had the chance, he tried to discuss his beliefs with the students. Some of the less serious boys in the group made a game of challenging the waiter's expectations of departing this world for a better one. One loud sophomore, particularly, continued to scoff at the old man.

On a quiet Sunday evening, he called in a voice which carried clear across the dining room, "Josiah, suppose you are wrong about this salvation business and somehow land in hell. What will you do?"

The old waiter shuffled on with a tray of food until he could look the scoffer in the eye. Then he replied, "Well, suh, I expect I'll go right on serving students."

The longest distance between two points is an unfamiliar shortcut between them.
